

Labour Market Information (LMI) for Walsall

Understanding the local job market can help you make well-informed decisions about your career. Here are some key insights into the labour market in Walsall:

- Growing Sectors: Health and social care, manufacturing, logistics, and retail.
- Manufacturing and Engineering: Traditional industries provide roles in machining, assembly, and production management.
- Health and Social Care: A growing need for carers, nurses, and social workers.
- Retail and Hospitality: High streets and shopping centres support customer service and food service roles.
- Logistics: Strong transport links create opportunities in warehousing and supply chain management.

Current Job Trends

- Healthcare Professionals: Strong need for carers and nurses.
- Skilled Trades: Demand for electricians, machinists, and technicians.
- Digital Skills: Growing need for IT support and digital marketing professionals.